THE MONSOON CHAPTER 12

Art & design celebrate the multi-hued awakenings of the Indian Monsoon

The Monsoon Festival, now in its twelfth edition, foregrounds the diverse experiences of the season through multiple mediums of artistic creativity, connecting us to the natural world around us in the process.

The visual art component of the festival, The Monsoon Chapter makes an effort to capture the universe of the monsoon and its million awakenings through the diverse voices of established and emerging artists. Following our standard template, this year too, the chapter opens us to the following awakenings of India's favourite season:

- Abstract experiences of the monsoon
- Flora and fauna and how they celebrate the season
- The human response to the season
- The body and monsoon
- Divinities and mythologies connected with the monsoon
- Landscapes of Rain
- Monsoon objects – an inanimate celebration
- Monsoon in an urban context: the love-hate relationship that cities share with monsoon

The exhibition presents a range of mediums to experience the grandeur of the season - from painting, photography, installation, sculpture to other diverse artistic media, bringing together traditional and contemporary idioms in an unalloyed celebration of India's favourite season.
